Company Release – May 9, 2014 Time 4:00 P.M.

NAPLES, FL - Naples, Florida based First National Bank of the Gulf Coast (FIRST NATIONAL BANK) was designated a Family Friendly Business by the Naples Alliance for Children. Local businesses that exemplify a family friendly workplace by meeting established criteria received the 2014 NAFC Family Friendly Business designation. Plaques were presented to all the designees at the seventeenth annual NAFC Celebration Dinner on April 7, 2014 at Artis-Naples.

The Naples Alliance for Children encourages and recognizes employers who have workplace policies and programs that assist employees to take an active part in raising their children. First National Bank of the Gulf Coast is proud to be one of only 27 businesses recognized this year in Naples.

Gary L. Tice, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of First National Bank of the Gulf Coast stated, “We are grateful to the Naples Alliance for Children for recognizing us with this designation, as we pride ourselves in the fact that family comes first! We are very proud to offer our employees an excellent work environment with employee benefits and human resources policies that support a strong family friendly company.”
