

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TGR FINANCIAL, INC. RECOVERS FROM HURRICANE IRMA

NAPLES, FL, September 18, 2017 – TGR Financial, Inc. (OTCQX: TGRF), the holding company for First Florida Integrity Bank (www.ffibank.com), is proactively addressing concerns following the aftermath of hurricane Irma. While the storm has impacted almost everyone in Florida, our banking offices and banking services have been restored. Our office located in Tampa along with the Pine Ridge and Anchor Rode Drive offices in Naples opened last week. The majority of our other offices have resumed business today, Monday, September 18, and any remaining offices will reopen once power has been restored and minor repairs completed.

TGR Financial Inc. Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Gary L. Tice commented “Our thoughts and prayers go out to all who experienced the wrath of hurricane Irma. Southwest Florida was impacted significantly from the storm. Our facilities had minimal damages, and our operations were restored within two business days of the hurricane. We were able to limit our downtime due to the significant efforts of our employees both prior to and after the hurricane. We are truly fortunate to have such dedicated professionals who have worked tirelessly under extremely stressful conditions.”

First Florida Integrity Bank President and Chief Executive Officer Garrett S. Richter also commented “Local businesses here in Collier County are beginning to reopen. Fortunately, property damage is manageable, and power is being restored. We are confident that the economy will fully recover from the hurricane, and continue its growth trajectory. To that end, First Florida Integrity Bank will make every effort to accommodate customers, residents and businesses located in the path of the hurricane. Being the largest community bank headquartered in Collier County provides us with a unique understanding of the conditions facing the local economy. We are united in this recovery effort together.”
