TGR FINANCIAL, INC. BEGINS TRADING ON OTCQX

NAPLES, FL (August 25, 2016) – TGR Financial, Inc. (OTCQX: TGRF) today announced that it has qualified to begin trading its common stock on the OTCQX® U.S tier of the OTCQX Market. The Company will trade under the symbol TGRF.

OTCQX for Banks is an expansion of the OTCQX market and was created to increase visibility of well managed and highly capitalized banks in the public markets. In order to qualify for OTCQX, banks must meet high financial standards and be current in reporting to bank regulators and, if applicable, the Securities and Exchange Commission. Companies traded on the OTCQX are required to provide quarterly results and information on material events as such events occur. Companies must also appoint a Corporate Broker, a FINRA member broker specializing in bank stocks, to serve as their advisor. Raymond James & Associates, a full-service securities firm committed to the research and market making activities of community banks, will serve as TGR Financial, Inc.'s Corporate Broker on OTCQX. The Company believes that greater financial reporting transparency along with an experienced and dedicated Corporate Broker will build a greater level of confidence among its stockholders and potential investors. Investors can find current financial disclosures and Real-Time Level 2 quotes for TGR Financial, Inc. at www.otcm Markets.com.

“TGR Financial, Inc. is excited to begin trading on the OTCQX market. Participation in this distinguished market provides us access to a broader marketplace where we can disseminate financial information in a transparent and cost effective manner. We believe this will provide more liquidity for our dedicated shareholder base,” stated Gary L. Tice, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of TGR Financial, Inc.
