FIRST FLORIDA INTEGRITY BANK'S SCOTT KOENIG COMPLETES GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BANKING AT LSU

NAPLES, FL.- June 22, 2018, Scott Koenig, Senior Vice President at First Florida Integrity Bank in Naples, FL, is among the 185 bankers who received graduation diplomas on June 1, 2018 from the Graduate School of Banking at Louisiana State University. This three-year program provides courses covering all aspects of banking, economics and related subjects. Students traveled from twenty-two states and Mexico to participate in this Session.

Sponsored by 15 southern state bankers associations in cooperation with the Division of Continuing Education at LSU, the banking school requires attendance on campus for three years, with extensive bank study assignments between sessions. The faculty consists of bankers, business and professional leaders, and educators from all parts of the U.S. During their three summer sessions at the Graduate School of Banking, students receive 180 hours of classroom instruction, planned evening study, and final examinations at the end of each session.

Mr. Koenig has 24 years of experience in the banking industry. He is a graduate of Thomas More College with degrees in Business Administration and Economics. Beginning his career in accounting at KMK Law in Cincinnati, he transitioned to banking with a Chief Credit Officer position at Fifth Third's Northern Kentucky Affiliate, followed by an Auditor position at the bank's Headquarters in Cincinnati. During his tenure, he relocated to Southwest Florida and joined Shamrock Bank as a Senior Lender in March of 2012. With First Florida Integrity Bank's acquisition of Shamrock, Mr. Koenig joined FFIB as Senior Vice President – Commercial Lender in March, 2014.

Headquartered in Naples, Florida, First Florida Integrity Bank currently has seven full-service offices and $1.4 billion in assets as of March 31, 2018.
